Shayne Thompson pleads guilty to multiple violent crimes

Crimes include 2013 Murder and home invasion

(Indianapolis, Ind.) Marion County Prosecutor Terry Curry announced today that Shayne Thompson has pleaded guilty to Murder and Robbery (Class A Felony) in the September 25, 2013 homicide of gas station clerk Evalide Ndyiae at BP/Rickers, 38th Street and High School Road. Thompson also pleaded guilty to Robbery (Class B Felony) for a robbery on the same evening of Speedway Gas, 71st Street and Keystone Avenue. Thompson also has pleaded guilty to Burglary (Class A Felony), Robbery (Class B Felony) and five counts of Criminal Confinement (Class B Felony) for his role in a home invasion that same month on the east side of Indianapolis.

Ryan Clark and Janai Hudson were also charged in in the gas station robbery and murder. Clark's case is set for trial on August. 25. Janai Hudson has pleaded guilty to Conspiracy to Commit Robbery (Class A Felony) and is awaiting sentencing.

The case against Clark for his role in the September BP/Rickers robbery is pending.

Under the terms of the plea, Thompson's sentence will be no less than 65 years executed at the Department of Correction and the Judge may sentence him to as much as 110 years executed at the Department of Correction.

A charge of a crime is merely an accusation, and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
